PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Brothers,

As 2025 fades into the past, I am humbled and proud of what an amazing year SigEp at UConn has had. Our successes range from the graduation of our incredible Class of '25, to our fourth consecutive Buchanan Cup in July to another successful Annual Meeting in November.

But beyond our impressive accolades, Connecticut Alpha continues to excel in Brotherly Love—both in the undergraduate chapter and the broader alumni community. Last year, for instance, several of our alumni put in a hearty amount of time and sweat into building a new, seven-foot trophy case for the chapter house to better display our legacy of excellence.

And to help keep the engine running, in August we wrapped up our 2025 alumni giving campaign, which raised over $10,000. See below for detail on how these funds are used, and a sincere thank you to all of our generous brothers who helped us meet our goal.

Looking ahead, we currently have over 100 chapter members, and our outstanding new E-Board is primed for another amazing year ahead.

On my end . . . life and work have continued to grow busier. Longer days at the office, more weddings to attend, and more errands to run. As always, reconnecting with my SigEp brothers helps keep myself grounded, whether I find myself hanging around DC, visiting home in Connecticut, or on various travels across the United States. As I continue my sixth year as an alumnus and approach my fifth year as AVC President, I remain both grateful and proud for Connecticut Alpha's past, present, and future. From my red door to yours, wishing you a great 2026.

2025 CAREER DAY EVENT

More than 40 brothers, alumni, and friends gathered on UConn's campus this fall for the inaugural SigEp at UConn Career Day—a celebration of mentorship, professional growth, and brotherhood. The day kicked off with an inspiring keynote from Tom Birmingham '86, who challenged undergraduates to see their careers as a “hero’s journey.” This was followed by practical, hands-on guidance from UConn career professionals. Lively networking exercises and an alumni panel spanning four decades sparked meaningful conversations and valuable connections across generations. The event wrapped up with camaraderie, gratitude, and a clear message: SigEp at UConn is building lifelong leaders—together.
